

PROGRAM

July 22-23, 2009. Golden Gate Room, Hyatt Regency, San Francisco CA. All sessions are designed for active discussion.

Wednesday, July 22nd

12 pm. Introduction and Lunch.

1 pm. Know Thyself: Bill Lindstaedt of UCSF and Janice Morand, UC Davis. A workshop relating our personality preferences according to the Myers/Briggs Type Indicator Assay to our leadership and laboratory management skills.

4 pm. Coffee Break.

4:30 pm. Great Mentors. Elliot Meyerowitz from Caltech. Discussion using cases submitted by Campers.

6:00 pm. Dinner.

7:30 pm. Alternative Directions. Matt Scott, Stanford U on changing scientific projects; and Susan Ernst, Tufts U, on taking on administrative roles.

Thursday, July 23rd.

8:00 am. Continental Breakfast.

8:30 am. Scientific Teaching. Bill Wood of U Colorado on Teaching as an Alternative Scientific Pursuit and on Innovations in Teaching Undergraduate Biology. Graciela Unguez of New Mexico State U on how scientific teaching methods can improve our teaching.

10:00 am. Coffee Break and Group Photo.

10:30 am. Balancing Act. Mary Ann Mason of UC Berkeley on family life issues, including balancing our professional and personal lives.

12 pm. Lunch and The Ins and Outs of Arranging a Sabbatical. Yolanda Cruz of Oberlin College on setting up a leave.

1 pm. Evaluation forms completed; Campers dismissed!