

NOMINATION for 2005 VIKTOR HAMBURGER OUTSTANDING EDUCATOR PRIZE

Objective: Established in 2002 by the Board of Directors and sponsored by the Professional Development and Education Committee of the Society for Developmental Biology, this award recognizes individuals who have made outstanding contributions to developmental biology education.

Eligibility: A nominee must have made outstanding contributions to education in developmental biology. Contributions will be construed in the broadest context and may include teaching at any level; training professionals; organizing and administering programs; integrating developmental biology into our educational system; or disseminating reliable information to professional members, to prospective developmental biologists, to students in other fields, or to the general public. Candidates are not required to be SDB members but must be nominated at least by two SDB members. Prize recipient must be able to deliver a lecture at the Education Symposium at the SDB Annual Meeting.

Selection: An Awards Committee composed of SDB Directors and members chaired by President-elect (Elliot Meyerowitz for 2005 award) will consider all nominations and will make recommendations to the SDB Board of Directors who will make the final selection.

Prizes: A check in the amount of $1000 and an award will be presented to the winner at the SDB 64th Annual Meeting (Hyatt Embarcadero, San Francisco, CA, July 27-Aug 1, 2005). The winner will be invited to attend the annual meeting, with travel and housing paid for by SDB, and the meeting registration fee will be waived.

Deadline for receipt of nominations for 2005 award: December 1, 2004. Nominations may be sent to SDB office by email (sdb@faseb.org), FAX (301-634-7825) or letter (9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD 20814-3998, U.S.A.).

Past recipients: Scott Gilbert, Lewis Wolpert and Leon Browder.
